

PUBLICATION POLICY, FUNDING AND SUBMISSION PROCESS

PUBLICATION POLICY:

Urdu research journal Alhamd strictly follows HEC Rules and Regulations pertaining to Publication of manuscripts and articles. As the journal is bi-annual, it announces call for papers from 1st January to 31st March and 1st July to 30th September every year. After receiving the articles for a particular issues, the editorial board scrutinise all of them by analysing their merit according to the scope, aims and objectives and suitability as per HEC Guidelines mentioned in Scope, Aims & Objectives.

There are no publication fee of Urdu Research Journal Alhamd. For publication, every article goes through a mechanism of Plagiarism, National and International Blind Peer Review and other codal formalities. For details, please see HEC plagiarism policy document at www.alhamd.aiu.edu.pk

Sources of Funding and Submission Process:

The main source of Alhamd is Alhamd Islamic University and Higher Education Commission, (HEC) Islamabad. Alhamd does not charge a single penny for publication of articles and similarly does not compromise on its academic and research standard. The submission process is very easy and convenient. All articles may be send at the official email of Dr. Sher Ali, Editor: sher.ali@alhamd.pk

The article must be typed in MS Word. Alhamd follows Chicago Manual of Style for referencing and notes. For details please see the official website of Chicago Manual of Style at www.chicagomanualofstyle.org

Cost of Alhamd per issue:

Rs. 500/= in Pakistan

20 US Dollar for abroad